

GLUTEBUILDER® SELECTORIZED

Pendulum Kickback

GSL0617

Developed in partnership with Glutebuilder and exclusively available from Precor, the Glutebuilder Selectorized line delivers targeted glute, leg, and hip training equipment in a space-efficient design. The precision biomechanics guide exercisers through a controlled, consistent motion path designed to maximize muscle engagement and support proper joint alignment. The multiple adjustment points and integrated weight stack allow exercisers to personalize fit and resistance, creating an approachable experience focused on lower-body training.

The Selectorized Pendulum Kickback provides a stable, guided alternative to the traditional cable kickback, isolating movement at the hip joint for more focused glute activation. Its controlled motion path and integrated weight stack deliver smooth, consistent resistance, while intentional adjustment points make setup accessible for a wide range of exercisers.

Product Features

PRECISION BIOMECHANICS

The pendulum motion path isolates movement at the hip joint allowing for a greater range of hip flexion and extension to better target the glutes. Resistance follows a descending profile that aligns with the body's natural strength curve for smooth, consistent reps.

MULTIPLE ADJUSTMENT POINTS

Intentional adjustment points allow exercisers to customize positions, range of motion, and setup. The kneeling exercise position with a double knee pad, chest pad, and hand grips, create the necessary support to maximize stability and comfort.

SPACE SAVING DESIGN

A compact design delivers focused glute training within an efficient space-saving profile.

APPROACHABLE DESIGN

Integrated weight stack and clearly defined adjustment points.
